MASCA's 80th Annual Conference
Mystic Marriott, Groton Connecticut
May 20th through May 23rd, 2018

MASCA is seeking dynamic, engaging, and knowledgeable presenters for our 80th Annual Conference. The primary conference audience will consist of professionals in the related fields of probation, parole, juvenile justice, treatment, judiciary, and corrections. Proposals are solicited for 60-minute presentations that are creative, dynamic, and feature best practices in the justice related fields. Tracks for workshop content include Facility Based Corrections, Community Based Corrections, Technology, and Wellness. The presentation timeframe includes introductions, presentation material, question and answer session, and evaluation. Attendees should leave with specific knowledge and skills about various aspects of the topic and how it relates to their future development. Presentations should provide attendees with educational value and refrain from promoting a specific business, product, or service.

Please visit our website to submit a proposal:
